

Alumni Privacy Notice

Created or reviewed:	December 2025
Version:	2.0
Review date:	December 2026

This privacy notice has been written to inform alumni of the ONE Trust about how and why we process your personal data when maintaining our relationship with you post-studies.

Who are we?

The ONE Trust is a data controller as defined by the UK GDPR. This means that we determine the purposes for which your personal data is processed and the manner of the processing. We will only collect and use your personal data in ways that are compliant with data protection legislation.

The school has appointed Veritau Ltd as its Data Protection Officer (DPO). The role of the DPO is to monitor our compliance with the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018 and advise on data protection issues. If you would like to discuss this privacy notice or our use of your data, please contact Veritau or the Chief Financial Officer, Victoria Hanlon.

Veritau's contact details are:

Schools Data Protection Officer
Veritau

schoolsDPO@veritau.co.uk // 01904 554025

Please ensure you include the name of your school in all correspondence.

What personal information do we collect?

The personal data we collect about you includes:

- Personal and contact information (name, gender, D.O.B, student number, email address, postal address, phone number; your relationship to other alumni; your social media account name).
- Education information (course(s) attended, attendance records, disciplinary and attainment records, awards; your involvement with any sports teams, societies or extracurricular activities).
- Career information (data relating to your university course or other destination when you left school, such as an apprenticeship or employment; testimonials or case studies).
- Alumni engagement (alumni registration, contact preferences; data relating to your attendance of alumni events).
- Photographs and videos of you from your time at the school.
- Photographs and videos of you from your attendance at any alumni events, including CCTV footage.
- Financial information, including your donor status and any donations that you make to the school.

Why do we collect your personal information?

We process your information for the purposes outlined below:

- To facilitate alumni events organised by the school.
- To communicate and maintain a relationship with our alumni community.
- To collect testimonials or case studies to help promote the school.
- To provide references about you, at your request.
- To raise funding through donations.
- To track the destinations of our pupils (higher education, apprenticeships or employment), and produce reports or returns to relevant statutory bodies.

What is our lawful basis for processing your information?

Under the UK GDPR, it is essential to have a lawful basis when processing personal information. We normally rely on the following lawful bases:

- Article 6(1)(a) – consent
- Article 6(1)(c) - legal obligation

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind about our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting Victoria Hanlon, Victoria.Hanlon@onetrustacademies.org.uk.

There may be occasions where our processing is not covered by one of the legal bases above. In that case, we may rely on Article 6(1)(f) - legitimate interests. We only rely on legitimate interests when we are using your data in ways you would reasonably expect.

Who do we obtain your information from?

We normally receive this information directly from you.

Who do we share your personal data with?

We may share your information with the following organisations:

- Local Authority
- Department for Education (DfE)
- Charity Commission
- HMRC
- Companies or organisations acting on our behalf
- Our suppliers and IT applications, where necessary.

We may also share information with other third parties where there is a lawful basis to do so. For example, we sometimes share information with the police for the purposes of crime detection or prevention.

How long do we keep your personal data for?

We will retain your information in accordance with our Records Management Policy and Retention Schedule. Statutory obligations determine the retention period for most of the information we process about you. Any personal information which we are not required by law to retain will only be kept for as long as is reasonably necessary to fulfil its purpose.

We may also retain some information for historical and archiving purposes in accordance with our Records Management policy.

Artificial intelligence (AI)

We may use some systems and platforms that incorporate an AI function. Where we do this, we ensure that the data is held securely and is not used for training the AI model. AI does not make any automated decisions about individuals, and outputs are always subject to human oversight.

International transfers of data

Although we are based in the UK, some of the digital information we hold may be stored on computer servers located outside the UK. Some of the IT applications we use may also transfer data outside the UK.

Usually your information will not be transferred outside the European Economic Area, which is deemed to have adequate data protection standards by the UK government. In the event that your information is transferred outside the EEA, we will take reasonable steps to ensure your data is protected and appropriate safeguards are in place.

What rights do you have over your data?

Under the UK GDPR, individuals have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data:

- to be informed about how we process your personal data. This notice fulfils this obligation.
- to request a copy of the personal data we hold about you.
- to request that your personal data is amended if inaccurate or incomplete.
- to request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing.
- to request that the processing of your personal data is restricted.
- to object to your personal data being processed.

If you have any concerns about the way we have handled your personal data or would like any further information, then please contact our DPO using the details provided above.

If we cannot resolve your concerns then you may also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, which is the UK's data protection regulator. Their contact details are below:

Phone: 0303 123 1113 or via their live chat. Opening hours are Monday to Friday between 9am and 5pm (excluding bank holidays). You can also report, enquire, register and raise complaints with the ICO using their web form on Contact us | ICO.

Changes to this notice

We reserve the right to change this privacy notice at any time. We will normally notify you of changes that affect you. However, please check regularly to ensure you have the latest version.
